

4723 Highview Court Raleigh, NC / Hunter Hills Subdivision

Hunter Hills was developed in three phases over the years. The third and final phase is located at the back of the neighborhood and has the benefit of more natural areas and wooded space. The only street in phase three begins on the corner of Highview Court and Bartwood Drive and continues down to a quiet cul-de-sac.

Across from 4723 Highview Court is a 60 acre property that remains undisturbed and beautifully wooded.
